

WE'LL SEE YOU ON SUNDAY

-Jamie McCoy-

"I rejoiced with those who said to me 'Let us go to the house of the Lord.'"
Psalm 122:1. The psalmist was excited as he thought about his journey to Jerusalem and the temple where he knew he could be in the presence of the Almighty and experience peace and prayer and praise. Wouldn't it be great if we could all anticipate joy at the thought of being together with God's people in the assembly? Let me tell you about an opportunity coming up wherein I believe this might be possible. Beginning on June 17th and continuing through Labor Day Sunday, we are combining our adult and teen Sunday morning Bible classes and meeting in the auditorium for a summer series. The general theme of the lessons will be "Experiencing God Every Day." The classes will be taught by a different teacher each week as we 1.) learn from faithful men and women who experienced God, 2.) learn about God from their experience, 3.) better challenge ourselves to encounter God daily and, 4.) be transformed by that experience. Sounds good so far doesn't it? By looking at the lives of Bible characters such as Abraham, Moses, Jacob, Ruth, Samuel, David, Peter, Paul and others we look to draw ourselves and each other closer to God with topics such as obedience, doubt, courage, anticipation and more, we will no doubt be enlightened and enriched. If you are currently participating in one of our Sunday morning classes, we encourage you to join us in the auditorium. If you are not attending a Bible class on Sunday mornings, you are especially encouraged to begin a new routine and start attending. You will not regret it. What more can we say but that these sessions of learning, prayer, praise and the peace of God will benefit not only the most experienced of us but also those yearning for more knowledge of God and his Kingdom. Please pray for these classes and all those who might attend as well as those preparing to teach. We'll see you on Sunday.
