

MAKE KNOWN

I am intrigued by pop culture. One thing that interests me is the gatherings and conversations surrounding content created and posted on the internet. A few people will circle up and show a video clip from one of their favorite social media platforms. In response, others will proceed to talk about something they saw and liked. It goes something like this: "That's cool. Have you seen this?" They stand around talking and laughing, sharing their beloved content. It happens all around us. Keep your eyes open, and you will see it everywhere.

Back in the day, the prophet Isaiah envisioned what life would be like for a remnant of the faithful who returned from exile and greeted the Messiah. Until he arrived, it was a time of longing and anticipation. When he arrived and his salvation was experienced, it would be a time of excitement and joy.

Isaiah 12:4

And you will say in that day: "Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted.

This was some of the most anticipated content ever created. Isaiah said those who saw it would not be able to help themselves. They were going to have to share it with the people around them. They would be people who thankfully said:

Make him known!

Exalt his name!

People are gathering and having all sorts of conversations. Some of them have merit. Most of them are pointless in the grand scheme of things. When you see those things happen, remember: The Messiah has come. His name is Jesus. It is the best message EVER. Gather up some people around you and share.

Make him known!

Exalt his name!

Shalom,

Ryan
