

MARRIAGE CLASS

-Ryan Parsons-

Coming Soon!

Starting Wednesday, August 21 at 6:30 p.m., we will begin a special 10 week class for our married couples! Together, we will look at the scriptural foundations for marriage, take the Prepare Enrich assessment, and discuss practical spiritual implementation of proven tools to enrich our marriages. I would like to ask you and your spouse to prayerfully consider participating.

Marriage is undoubtedly the highest relationship we can enter into, second only to our relationship with Jesus Christ. Through this sacred bond created by God himself, we journey as husband and wife through careers, children, establishing a home, retirement, empty nests, grandchildren, sickness, and death (to name a few). But, more importantly, we spur one another along in our walk with God and help one another strive toward our eternal home with our Lord.

Is it easy? NO! Like a roller coaster, every couple experiences the highs, lows, twists and turns. Sometimes it can be terrifying, and at other times it can be pure joy. Throughout the journey, we find that we have grown deeply in our love for each other; while at other times, we are at odds with one another to the point that it feels like we hate each other's guts. Yet, marriage remains a beautiful adventure when God is at the core walking beside us and giving encouragement and correction.

You may be wondering what class will look like and have a few questions.

Will it be dreadfully awkward?

I don't think so. We will start out each class with a time of fun and fellowship followed with prayer, study, individual couple exercises, and group discussion.

What do I have to do to participate?

Before the class starts, each couple will take the Prepare Enrich Assessment online which will give that husband and wife team a snapshot of where their relationship is right now. That information, which will only be shared with the husband and wife, will guide their own individual time of learning in the class.

Is there a cost?

Each couple needs to take the PE assessment before the class begins. The cost per couple is only $35. If cost is an issue, but you would really like to participate in the class, please talk to Ryan.

For any additional questions, just give me a shout. I pray that God will bless us as we try to bless, encourage, equip and enrich our couples!

If you plan to participate, please send Ryan the email address for each of you to rparsons25@gmail.com.
