

A Well Deserved "Thank You"

-Jamie McCoy-

It's Song #693 in your song book. "A Servant Song" is the title. The lyrics are short, simple, yet profound. "Give me the heart of a servant, tender and faithful and true. Fill me with love then use me O Lord, so that the world can see you."

We all need to strive for such a heart, as that of one in the song. Imagine the impact on the world if only a few had that tender, compassionate heart that holds fast to the truth of God's word. One that is filled with the love of God, love for God, love for others and love for self. One that strives to use his talents and abilities to carry out the will of God and to show the world all that a good God has done for the world.

I believe we have such a servant heart among us. Even knowing that he neither asks for nor wants recognition, we think it necessary to recognize Jim Hyst and to thank him for his work in writing his articles for the bulletin. For many years, with passion and dedication, thoughtfulness and concern, and a loving servant heart. Jim has taught us much with the articles. Thank you, Jim. Your efforts have not been unnoticed nor have they been under appreciated.

For the Shepherds, Jamie